1-Day Itinerary in Alicante

Morning:

- 09:00 AM - Start your day at the Santa Bárbara Castle \(1\), an impressive fortress that rises above the city, offering spectacular panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea and the entire Alicante area.
- 11:00 AM - Descend to the Old Town, where you can immerse yourself in the history of Alicante by strolling through its cobble streets and discovering architectural gems like the impressive San Nicolás Cathedral \(2\), richly decorated and located in the heart of Alicante.

Lunch:

- 01:00 PM - If there's one thing Alicante is known for, it's rice dishes. You can't visit Alicante without eating at L'Arruzz, a restaurant specializing in rice dishes with a great quality-price ratio. You won't be disappointed!

Afternoon:

- 02:30 PM - Walk along the emblematic Explanada de España \(3\), a unique seafront promenade adorned with its characteristic mosaic flooring that represents the waves of the sea. Enjoy a pleasant stroll while observing the city's hustle and bustle and the flow of passersby.

- 04:00 PM - Dive into the world of contemporary art at the Alicante Museum of Contemporary Art \(MACA\) \(4\), where you can admire an impressive collection of modern masterpieces and explore the creativity of local and international artists. Don't forget to also visit the nearby Hogueras Museum \(5\), where you can learn about the tradition and art behind the famous Hogueras de San Juan.

Dinner:

- 07:30 PM - End the day with dinner at one of the many restaurants in the area, enjoying typical Alicante cuisine without leaving the city center. We recommend a vermouth bar with tapas, such as La Guapa, El Sorbo, Gisbert Appetizers or La Cave à Fromage.

2-Day Itinerary in Alicante

Day 1: follow the 1-day itinerary.

Day 2:

Morning:

- 09:00 AM - Enjoy nature and panoramic views at the Ereta Park \(1\), a peaceful oasis in the city where you can walk through gardens and admire the beauty of Alicante from above.
- 10:30 AM - Immerse yourself in local Alicante life by visiting the Central Market \(2\), a vibrant place where you can taste fresh and local products (fresh fruit and vegetables, meats, fish, and typical Alicante foods) while soaking up the authentic atmosphere of Alicante.

Lunch:

- 01:00 PM - Stop by La Marmita Alicantina to enjoy delicious and authentic tapas that will transport you to the heart of Alicante gastronomy.

Afternoon:

- 02:30 PM - Explore the Barrio de Santa Cruz \(3\), a district with cobbled streets, colorful houses, and flowers that create a unique and picturesque atmosphere. Immerse yourself in the history and culture of Alicante as you wander through this urban labyrinth.
- 04:30 PM - Relax and enjoy the sun at Postiguet Beach \(4\), where you can feel the sea breeze and refresh yourself in the crystal-clear waters of the Mediterranean. If you prefer a quieter environment, head to the beautiful San Juan Beach \(5\), where you can enjoy golden sand and calm waters in an impressive natural setting.

Dinner:

- 08:00 PM - End your day with a delicious dinner at Piripi, a restaurant known for its local dishes with a modern twist that will surprise you with their creativity and exceptional flavor while you enjoy a cozy and elegant atmosphere.

3-Day Itinerary in Alicante

Day 1 and 2: Follow the 2-day itinerary.

Day 3:

Morning:

- 09:00 AM - Start your day in the charming town of Altea. Visit the Church of Nuestra Señora del Consuelo \(1\), whose blue-tiled dome is emblematic of the Costa Blanca. Enjoy panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea from its square.
- 11:00 AM - Stroll down the cobbled streets of Altea's Old Town \(2\), exploring its art galleries, craft shops, and cozy cafés. Don't miss the Plaza de la Iglesia viewpoint \(3\), where you can capture spectacular photos.

Lunch:

- 01:00 PM - Enjoy lunch at Xef Pirata - Gastro Bar, known for its innovative tapas dishes. The cuisine fuses traditional flavors with a modern touch, and the atmosphere is perfectly cozy.

Afternoon:

- 02:30 PM - Drive to the Algar Waterfalls \(4\), just 15 km from Altea. Spend the afternoon enjoying nature in this natural park, where you can admire the waterfalls, take a refreshing dip in the pools, and stroll along the trails.
- 04:30 PM - Return to the coast to visit the Altea Seafront Promenade \(5\), where you can relax with a walk by the sea. Take the opportunity to have a coffee or an ice cream at one of the many establishments with sea views.

Dinner:

- 07:30 PM - End the day with dinner at Oustau de Altea, a charming restaurant located in an old village house, offering Mediterranean dishes and a selection of local wines. Enjoy a romantic evening with views of the illuminated old town.

4-Day Itinerary in Alicante

Day 1, 2, and 3: Follow the 3-day itinerary.

Day 4:

Morning:

- 09:00 AM - Embark on an exciting adventure to Tabarca Island \(1\), a natural paradise off the coast of Alicante. Take a ferry from the port and get ready to explore this island, the only inhabited one in the Valencian Community, where you'll find virgin beaches, crystal-clear waters, and a tranquil and relaxed atmosphere. Explore the island, discover its narrow streets and whitewashed houses, and let yourself be charmed by the authenticity of this Mediterranean corner.

Lunch:

- 01:00 PM - Enjoy an unforgettable culinary experience at La Almadraba Restaurant in Tabarca, where you can try the famous Tabarca stew, a traditional island dish that will captivate you with its unique flavor and freshness.

Afternoon:

- Return to Alicante and take advantage of your free time to shop for souvenirs in the charming shops of the historic center.
